About the Library

The Library and Information Centre has evolved significantly since its establishment in 2007. From its humble beginnings with just 2085 books, it now boasts a collection of over 8421+ books and various other resources tailored to support the B.Ed. Programme and Education disciplines. The library's collection isn't limited to books; it also includes a diverse range of periodicals such as national and international journals, magazines, encyclopedias, dictionaries, newspapers and e-resources, catering to the academic needs of students, research scholars, and faculty members. To efficiently manage this vast collection, the library is fully automated using the KOHA Integrated Library Management Software. Incorporating barcode technology has streamlined book transactions, allowing for quick checkouts and easy relocation of books within the library. Each book and borrower card is labeled with barcodes, containing essential information like accession number and call number for swift transactions and organization. The library operates under the supervision of a librarian and a library committee, ensuring smooth functioning and adherence to policies. Transactions, including book issuance, are facilitated through the barcode system, and lost books are replaced by the borrower. Additionally, damaged books are repaired during semester vacations to maintain the quality of the collection. To monitor library usage effectively, barcode scanners are deployed to track daily user activity. Regular stock verification is conducted as part of standard procedures to ensure the accuracy of the collection. Moreover, the library provides reprographic facilities for users to obtain photocopies of journal articles and book chapters. Accessibility is a priority, with the College Library spanning a total space of 1148.80 sq.m., ensuring ample room for study and research. With its extensive collection, modern facilities, and user-friendly systems in place, the Library and Information Centre stands as a valuable resource hub for the academic community.

Services:

The Library and Information Centre offers a range of services to cater to the diverse needs of its users:

1. Circulation of Books: Students can borrow up to 2 books for a period of 07 days, while faculty members can borrow up to 6 books for a period of 15 days. Different borrowing limits apply based on user categories. Overdue charges are levied for late returns.

2. Open Access System: The library operates on an open access system, allowing users direct and easy access to the book collection, fostering exploration and familiarity with available resources.

3. Books/Periodicals Display: Newly acquired books, journals, magazines, and latest issues are regularly displayed for users' awareness and access.

4. Inter-Library Loan: The library facilitates inter-library loan services, both sending and receiving books upon request. The Adichunchanagiri University is a member of the DELNET, DELNET is the resource-sharing platform, and the library is getting the ILL services as and when queries receive from the stakeholders. (https://delnet.in/ )

5. Reprography, Printing, and Document Delivery Services: Reprography service is available to the users on charge. Scanning and printing is also facilitated to the users for the information/learning materials searched on the net. On-demand, Document delivery of articles service is provided through mail to the users. Adichunchanagiri University is a member institute for DELNET. The DELNET is known for providing Document Delivery Services in the country; the library is providing the facility for users on a request basis.

6. Online Public Access Catalogue (Web-OPAC): The OPAC provides a comprehensive database of available documents, allowing online renewal, reservation, circulation, and fine collection. Users can search by various fields and access the OPAC 24x7 through http://103.42.75.164:8004

7. Institutional Repository (ACU JNANAKHANAJA): Jnana Khanaja serves as the institutional repository, preserving and providing access to the university's research, scholarship, and creative works. It includes scholarly and published digital content such as question papers, study materials, syllabus, publications and other documents & reports (http://103.42.75.165:8080/jspui/).

8. Plagiarism Check: Plagiarism detection services are offered to research scholars, faculty, and students using DrillBit (https://www.drillbitplagiarism.com/ ) and URKUND plagiarism detection software, ensuring originality of academic work.

9. Digital Library/Virtual Library: The Digital Library offers internet connectivity via computers, supporting self-learning activities. The library adopts an open access system for browsing books, e-books, and e-journals through Wi-Fi across the library and campus and Subscribed database.

10. E-resources Subscription: The Institution subscribes to nearly 5,696 online journals from DELNET, EBSCO-IEEE, and ProQuest: Health Research Premium Collection database/aggregator. We also registered as a member institution for the NDLI.

11. Wi-Fi Facility across the library and campus: Wi-Fi (Wireless Network) access is available across the library/campus and users can access e-information. The users have the liberty to use it around the clock

12. Newspaper Clipping Service: The Newspaper Clipping updates are provided via BlogSpot: https://aculibraries.blogspot.com/ with the available daily newspapers.

13. Book Bank facility: The Book Bank facility at BGSCE aims to provide students with essential textbooks and academic resources on a loan basis for an extended period. This initiative helps to ensure that all students, regardless of their financial situation, have access to the required study materials.

14. E-resources: Adichunchanagiri University (ACU) provides a comprehensive range of e-resources to support the academic and research needs of its students and faculty. These resources include access to various databases, digital libraries, and online platforms that offer a wealth of information across multiple disciplines. This report highlights key e-resources available at ACU, including DELNET, INFLIBNET, ProQuest: Health Research Premium Collection, National Digital Library of India (NDLI), and EBSCO IEEE Database, along with other open e-resources.

15. Reference Service: Library houses all important reference sources like Encyclopaedias, Dictionaries, Handbooks and Manuals, Statistics, and Yearbooks. The collection ranges from general to subject-specific sources. All the reference sources are housed in the Reference area. Users can also contact staff on duty for any assistance.

16. IRINS: Web-based Research Information Management (RIM) Service: IRINS is web-based Research Information Management (RIM) service developed by the Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre. The portal facilitates the academic, R&D organizations and faculty members, and scientists to collect, curate and showcase scholarly communication activities and provide an opportunity to create a scholarly network. The IRINS is available as a free software-as-service to academic and R&D organisations in India. The Adichunchanagiri University is the member institution for Research Information Management portal. The profiles of the faculties and researchers of the constituent colleges and research centres have been created in the system, and updated; the stakeholders can access the portal at any time round the clock: https://acu.irins.org/

These services collectively aim to facilitate research, learning, and scholarly pursuits within the academic community at BGSCE.
